Newrest branches out

JULY 30, 2018

Newrest has opened its first production unit in the United States in partnership with the Raleigh–Durham International Airport (RDU).

The new unit will serve existing partner Delta Air Lines and strengthens the French catering group's presence in North America. Newrest has been operating in Canada since 2009 and is actively pursuing new catering contracts in the region for airlines, railway companies and other organisations.

Newrest's joint chief executive officer and founder, Olivier Sadran, says; "I'm proud that Newrest is expanding into the United States. This new opportunity in a fiercely competitive sector shows that Newrest has what it takes to grow into new markets and adapt to its multicultural customers' wants and needs."
